Training for Transition
Building Resilient Communities for a Post-Carbon World

Transition Northfield is delighted to announce a weekend training workshop designed for people who are thinking of creating a transition initiative or who have already begun.

Saturday, June 13th & Sunday, June 14th from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm
@ Community Resource Bank, Conference Room • 1605 Heritage Drive Northfield, MN 55057 •

Sliding Fee Scale on a First Come First Serve Basis

Led by Becky and Bill Wilson, of Midwest Permaculture

The Transition Movement is a vibrant, international grassroots movement that seeks to build community resilience in the face of such challenges as peak oil, climate change and the economic crisis. It represents one of the most promising ways of engaging people in strengthening their communities against the effects of these challenges, resulting in a life that is more abundant, fulfilling, equitable and socially connected.

TRAINING FEE SCHEDULE and INSTRUCTIONS

This training is being offered using a unique approach we are calling the "Self-Determined Sliding Fee Scale". When deciding your fee, please consider:

- This training typically costs $225.
- Those who are able to pay more and do, will ensure that all can attend regardless of one’s ability to pay.
- The break-even registration fee per person is $100 (based on full capacity of 30 participants).
- If we do not receive funds enough to cover the cost of the training, we will pass the hat (at the training).
- There is space for up to 30 participants, so register early to ensure your space.
- All registrations are being processed anonymously.
